Please select the appropriate type of IRA: ☐ Traditional ☐ Roth ☐ SEP

Please indicate how the IRA will be funded:

☐ IRA Contribution: $_____ contribution for tax year ending December 31, 20____ (Checks must be made payable to STRATA Trust Company.)

For 2020, an individual may contribute up to the smaller of 100% of compensation or $6,000. An individual age 50 or older may make an additional contribution (called a catch-up contribution) of up to $1,000.

☐ Direct Transfer of Existing IRA from Another Custodian:

(Please complete and submit the applicable IRA Transfer Request Form.)

☐ Rollover IRA: $_____

This Rollover Contribution is the result of:

- ☐ Proceeds which I have actually or constructively received from a qualified pension or profit sharing plan, a 403(b) plan or another IRA.
- ☐ Direct Rollover from the Trustees of a qualified employer retirement plan. (Please complete and submit Transfer Request Form/Direct Rollover Letter.)

I hereby certify that the cash and/or in-kind transfer of assets which I deposit as a Rollover Contribution meets all of the requirements for an "eligible rollover contribution" under applicable law. I further certify that, if I have had a constructive receipt of funds for property as indicated by checking the "Rollover IRA" box above, that this rollover is being made within 60 days of my receipt of same. I acknowledge that my designation of this account as a "Rollover IRA" is irrevocable, unless I later determine that all or any portion of the assets deposited are an excess contribution. If I have elected a Traditional IRA, I understand that if I ever elect to combine regular annual IRA contributions, accumulated regular IRA contributions, or employer Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) plan contributions with funds rolled over from a qualified plan, I forfeit the right to subsequently roll this IRA into another qualified retirement plan. I understand that STRATA Trust Company will not monitor the nature of contributions to my Account, and has no duty to question my actions should I combine rollover IRA assets with regular contribution IRA assets. I hereby hold harmless STRATA Trust Company and Vision Financial Markets LLC from any liability for any financial loss, damage, or injury which I may sustain as a result of combining rollover and regular contribution IRA assets.

☐ SEP IRA (applicable only in a Traditional IRA): $_____

If this Account is established in connection with a Simplified Employee Pension (SEP), an employer may contribute up to the smaller of 25% of the individual's compensation or $57,000 for 2020. In addition to the employer contributions, the individual may make annual IRA contributions as described under "IRA Contribution" above. Please submit a copy of IRS Form 5305-SEP with this application. All SEP contributions are reported for the year in which they are received.

☐ Conversion from an existing STRATA Trust Company Traditional IRA

(You will need to complete and submit STRATA Trust Company's IRA Distribution Request for Conversion from a STRATA Trust Company Traditional IRA to a STRATA Trust Company Roth IRA Form.)

☐ Conversion from a Traditional IRA held at another IRA trustee or custodian

You will need to transfer your existing Traditional IRA to a STRATA Trust Company Traditional IRA in order to convert to a STRATA Trust Company Roth IRA. In addition, you will need to complete and submit the IRA Distribution Request for Conversion from a STRATA Trust Company Traditional IRA to a STRATA Trust Company Roth IRA Form.

☐ Beneficiary IRA: $_____ (Styled as: Your Name, Beneficiary FBO Deceased Name [Deceased])

For an individual who wishes to establish a Beneficiary IRA for the purpose of receiving cash/assets from an inherited IRA. One account per beneficiary.

If a beneficiary or account holder is known to the Custodian to be a minor, the Custodian shall have no independent duty to obtain or verify any information that any person claiming to be the parent, other legal representative of such beneficiary or account holder is entitled to act on behalf of such beneficiary or account holder but may instead rely on the representations of such parent or other legal representative that he or she has the authority to so act. You agree that the Custodian and Vision Financial Markets LLC shall have no liability for, and shall be fully indemnified against, any cost or damage it incurs in connection with its good faith reliance on such representations.

- (e) "Vision", "we", "us" or "our" refers to Vision Financial Markets LLC.
- (f) Captions and headings of this agreement are for descriptive purposes only and are not to be considered in its interpretation.

2. OWNERSHIP AND AUTHORIZATION. You agree that you are the rightful owner of all Securities and other property purchased, held and sold by you through Vision. You authorize Vision to purchase and sell Securities and other property for your Account in accordance with your oral, electronic or written instructions. We shall not be liable for acting on any false or erroneous oral or written instructions if the instructions reasonably appeared to us to be genuine or accurate. Vision shall be under no duty or obligation whatsoever to verify, confirm, inquire into or otherwise assure that any instructions or orders given to us by any authorized representative are your authorized acts. In the event of conflicting instructions, Vision reserves the right to take no action with respect to such instructions until the dispute is resolved to the satisfaction of Vision. You shall hold the Vision Parties (as defined below) harmless from any losses arising from Vision's reliance on and action taken based on instructions from any authorized representative. If Vision believes there is a dispute concerning the control or ownership of Securities and other property in your Account, Vision may, but is not obligated to, take one or more of following actions, without any liability, until such dispute is resolved to our satisfaction:

("FINRA"), Chicago Board Options Exchange ("CBOE"), Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), other markets and regulatory organizations, and all applicable federal or state statutes, rules and regulations (collectively, "Governing Regulations"). If any Governing Regulations change, those changes shall be binding upon Vision and you as if made a part of this agreement without any additional action on Vision's or your part. If this agreement is incompatible with any current or future Governing Regulations, the affected provisions of this agreement shall be deemed modified or superseded, as the case may be, by the applicable provisions of such Governing Regulations, and all other provisions of this agreement and provisions so modified shall in all respects continue in full force and effect. Vision's failure to comply with any such Governing Regulations shall not be a breach of this agreement or otherwise impose liability upon Vision nor relieve you of any obligations hereunder. If you are subject to any Governing Regulation, Vision shall have no duty to determine whether you are in compliance with any Governing Regulation.

(b) When handling an order of 500 contracts or more on your behalf, Vision may solicit other parties to execute against your order and may thereafter execute your order using the International Securities Exchange's, ISE Gemini Exchange's, or ISE Mercury Exchange's Solicited Order Mechanism. This functionality provides a single-price execution only, so that your entire order may receive a better price after being exposed to the Exchange's participants, but will not receive partial price improvement. For further details on the operation of this Mechanism, please refer to International Securities Exchange, ISE Gemini, and ISE Mercury Rules 716(e), all which are available at <http://www.ise.com/options/regulatory-and-fees/rules-and-rule-changes>.

(a) All of your Securities and other property now and hereafter held, carried or maintained by Vision (or by any of its affiliates) in Vision's possession or control (or in the possession and control of any such affiliates) for any purpose, in or for any of your Accounts, now or hereafter opened, including any account, margin or cash, in which you have an interest, or which at any time are in your possession or under your control, shall be subject to a lien and security interest for the payment and discharge of, and a right of set off for, any and all indebtedness or any other obligations you may have to Vision. You agree that Vision holds all your Securities and other property as security for the payment of any such liability or indebtedness to Vision in any said account. Vision, in its sole discretion, without prior notice to you, may use, credit, apply or transfer interchangeably between any of your Accounts at Vision (or an affiliate of Vision) whenever Vision considers such a transaction necessary for its protection. In enforcing this lien and security interest, Vision, in its sole discretion, may determine which Securities and other property are to be sold and which contracts to be closed in order to satisfy any indebtedness or obligation you have to Vision. You irrevocably appoint Vision as your attorney-in-fact with power of substitution to execute any documents for the perfection or registration of such general lien and security interest.

(b) Vision may invest and reinvest any funds you deposit, subject to Governing Regulations, and Vision shall be under no obligation to pay you any interest on cash balances or to provide any other benefit derived from the investment of your Securities and other property.

(c) You understand that any balance due on your Account is payable immediately and Vision may demand payment of the full amount of any balance due on your Account at any time. If any dividend, interest, distribution or similar payment is made on your Account, Vision is authorized, but not required, to apply the payment to any balance due on your Account.

5. BREACH; LIQUIDATION OF ACCOUNTS AND PAYMENT OF COSTS.

(a) Vision shall have all rights and remedies available to a secured creditor under Governing Regulations, in addition to the rights and remedies provided herein. In the event of a breach, repudiation, or default by you, you understand that Vision may at any time, at our sole discretion and without prior notice to you: prohibit or restrict your access to the use of Vision's Web site (including any order entry system) or related services and your ability to trade; refuse to accept any of your transactions; refuse to execute any of your transactions; and/or terminate your Account. The closing of the Account will not affect the rights and/or obligations of either party incurred prior to the date the Account is closed.

(b) In the event of (i) your death or judicial declaration of your incompetency, (ii) the filing of a petition in bankruptcy, a petition for the appointment of a receiver by or against you, or an assignment for the benefit of creditors, (iii) an attachment, garnishment or levy on your Account, (iv) insufficient margin as determined by Vision in its sole discretion, (v) Vision's determination that any collateral deposited to protect one or more of your Accounts is inadequate or insufficient regardless of market quotations to secure such Account, (vi) any representations or warranties under this agreement shall be untrue in any material respect when made or repeated or (vii) any other circumstances that Vision deems necessary or appropriate, Vision is hereby authorized to take any or all of the following actions regarding your Account: (A) satisfy any obligation you may have to Vision out of any of your Securities and other property held by Vision or an affiliate of Vision; (B) liquidate any or all of your positions and assets without demand or notice and apply the proceeds to satisfy your obligations; (C) set-off, net and/or recoup any Vision obligations against your obligations; (D) convert any obligation from one currency to another currency; (E) cancel any or all open orders; (F) purchase Securities to cover the sale of Securities; and (G) take any other action Vision deems appropriate. Any or all of the above actions may be taken at Vision's discretion without demand and without prior notice to you. You shall at all times be liable for the payment of any deficit in your Account upon demand by Vision. You shall be responsible for and shall promptly pay to Vision all Account deficits and other obligations you may owe to Vision (collectively, "Customer Debts"), plus interest thereon at rates set forth in Section 15. You further agree to pay all of Vision's costs and expenses, including without limitation in-house and outside attorneys' fees, incurred in collecting Customer Debts in any legal proceeding unless you are the prevailing party. Customer Debts are payable on the date incurred without demand by Vision.

6. ORDERS FOR DELIVERY AND SETTLEMENT; PAYMENTS FOR PURCHASES AND SALES.

(a) When you place an order to sell, you are promising to Vision that you own the security and promise that, if the security is not in Vision's possession when you place the sale order, you will deliver the security to Vision by the settlement date. If you fail to deliver the security to Vision by the settlement date, Vision may purchase the security, at the current market price, for your Account and you will be responsible and agree to compensate Vision for any loss, commission and/or fees.

(b) Where required by Governing Regulations, in placing any sell order with, or reporting a sell order to us for, a long account, you shall designate the order as such. No order may be designated as being for a "long" account unless (i) you own the relevant securities and (ii) either such securities are in our physical possession and control at the time you place the order or, upon your request, we have determined that Vision may reasonably expect such securities to be in its physical possession or control in good deliverable form by settlement date. Your designation of an order as "long" shall constitute your representation that (i) and (ii) are true and accurate statements. In addition, the designation of a sell order for a long account shall constitute a representation that such security may be sold without any restriction in the open market.

(c) When you instruct us to purchase a security, you will make payment to Vision on or before the settlement date (except for Individual Retirement Accounts which require funds in house prior to purchasing securities). If you fail to make payment by the settlement date, you authorize Vision, at Vision's sole discretion and without prior notice to you, to sell the purchased security or any other securities in your Account to satisfy the debt, and you understand that you will be solely responsible for any resulting loss. Alternatively, if you fail to pay for a security purchased by you by the settlement date, you understand that your Account can be charged a late fee in addition to interest on the full amount of the deficit in your Account.

(d) If, for any transaction, you fail to make payment or deliver securities in good form, you authorize Vision to take all steps necessary to complete or cancel the transaction to minimize loss. You agree to reimburse Vision for any and all costs, losses and liabilities incurred by Vision, including attorneys' fees (both in-house and outside attorneys). In the event you become indebted to Vision with respect to your Account, you agree that you will satisfy such indebtedness upon demand. You agree that if, after demand, you fail to pay the indebtedness, Vision may close the Account and/or liquidate any Securities and other property in the Account, or otherwise held by Vision, in an amount sufficient to pay your indebtedness, plus interest accrued thereon, and take any other action permitted by this agreement or the Governing Regulations.

(e) You will provide us with any necessary documentation (including prospectuses and opinions) in order to satisfy legal transfer requirements, if any, in accordance with Governing Regulations.

7. FEES. You agree to pay such brokerage fees, commissions, transaction fees and account charges as Vision may impose from time to time. Such fees include, without limitation, fees imposed by FINRA, exchanges and clearing houses, and processing and servicing charges. Insignificant residuals on block trades may be held by Vision and treated as additional servicing charges. In the event that your Account is transferred to another broker, Vision may charge a reasonable transfer fee. If in order to trade on a foreign exchange, your funds are converted from U.S. dollars to a foreign currency or from a foreign currency to U.S. dollars, Vision may charge a reasonable markup in addition to the prevailing exchange rates. Vision may adjust its fees from time to time without prior notice to you. You authorize Vision to pay such fees from assets in your Account and, if necessary, by selling other assets in the Account. Vision reserves the right to change its fees or charges, or to implement additional fees or charges at any time, except as limited by applicable law. Fees are non-refundable.

8. STATEMENTS AND CONFIRMATIONS. All notices, demands, reports or other communications shall be transmitted to you at the address or, in the case of communications, the telephone number or e-mail address (if you have consented to e-mail delivery), shown on the account application or to such other address you designate in writing. All communications to you shall be deemed to have been received by you personally at the time so sent to you or your authorized agent, whether actually received or not. Reports of the execution of orders, trade confirmations or other notices shall be conclusive and final and shall be deemed to be accepted and ratified by you, unless you object by written communication actually received by Vision at its principal office within two (2) business days after delivery of or communication of the confirmation, report or notice to you by Vision. In addition, if Vision has not promptly advised you of the status of any order placed by you, you shall promptly, but in no event later than 24 hours after an order has been placed, contact Vision by telephone to verify your Account status. Your failure to contact Vision shall relieve Vision of any responsibility or liability with respect to such order. All orders shall only be good for the day such orders are placed, unless specified by you to be open orders. Any open order placed by you will not be cancelled by Vision unless you specifically requests cancellation. Vision shall not be held responsible for delays in the transmission or execution of orders due to a breakdown, delay in or failure of transmission or communication facilities, or for any other cause beyond Vision's control. YOU MUST OBJECT TO YOUR MONTHLY STATEMENTS, TRADE CONFIRMATIONS OR OTHER NOTICES IN WRITING AND DIRECT SUCH NOTICES TO VISION AT: 120 LONG RIDGE ROAD, 3 NORTH, STAMFORD, CT 06902 OR BY FACSIMILE TO 203.517.9710, ATTN: COMPLIANCE DEPARTMENT, WITHIN THE TIME PERIOD SET FORTH ABOVE. YOUR FAILURE TO OBJECT TIMELY AND IN WRITING SHALL CONSTITUTE RATIFICATION OF ALL ACTIONS TAKEN BY VISION OR ITS AGENTS.

9. NO TAX, ACCOUNTING, LEGAL OR MARKET ADVICE. You acknowledge that Vision does not provide any tax, accounting or legal advice of any kind to you. Vision does not give advice or offer any opinion with respect to the profitability, suitability or potential value of any particular transaction or investment strategy. You further acknowledge that any recommendations, market letters or other information ("Market Information") provided to you by Vision or any Correspondent clearing through Vision does not constitute an offer to sell or to buy any Securities or other property. Although derived from sources believed to be reliable, Vision makes no representation, warranty or guaranty as to, and shall not be responsible for, the accuracy or completeness of any information furnished to you. Vision makes no representation, warranty or guaranty with respect to the tax consequences of your transactions. You assume the risk of relying on Market Information and hereby indemnify and hold the Vision Parties harmless from any and all claims, demands, losses, damages or expenses the Vision Parties may incur as a result of your use of Market Information. You agree that any investment decisions and transactions you make will be based solely on your own evaluation of your financial circumstances and investment objectives and whether such decisions and transactions are suitable with respect to your investment and/or trading strategy.

10. CUSTOMER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES.

(a) By signing this agreement, you represent and warrant, and you will be deemed to have repeated each representation and warranty at the time of entering into each transaction, that: (i) all information provided to Vision (including by without limitation, on Form 1) is true and correct and is not misleading; (ii) except as disclosed in writing to Vision, no one except you has an interest in any Account carried for you by Vision; (iii) you have read and understand this agreement and have the required legal capacity, power and authority to enter into this agreement, and to engage in transactions of the kind contemplated hereunder; (iv) the performance of your obligations hereunder is not prohibited by any Governing Regulation, agreement or judicial or administrative order; (v) if applicable, the persons executing this agreement are duly authorized to sign this agreement in your name; (vi) unless you expressly advise Vision to the contrary, you hereby represent that you are not an affiliate (as defined in Rule 144A(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933) of the issuer of any security held in your Account; (vii) you agree not to make any trade individually or in concert with others that exceeds position limits imposed on you by Vision, any market or exchange or Governing Regulations; and (viii) you will not give or seek to give an order to Vision for a foreign exchange transaction (i.e., spots, forwards and options) without obtaining the agreement of Vision as to the following terms of each such trade: (X) specified amount of currency that is to be bought or sold; and (Y) the specific exchange rate at which the specified amount of currency is to be bought or sold.

(b) You further represent that you are not (i) an employee of any exchange, (ii) an employee of any corporation in which any exchange owns a majority of the capital stock, (iii) a member of any exchange or employee of such a member, (iv) a member of FINRA or employee of such a member, (v) an employee of any bank, trust company or insurance company or (vi) an individual engaged in the business of dealing either as a broker or as principal in securities, bills of exchange, acceptances or other forms of commercial paper, unless you notify Vision to that effect. You agree that you will promptly notify Vision in writing if any of the information or representations contained in the Account Application or in this agreement materially change or become inaccurate in any material aspect.

(c) You further represent that no one except you (or the beneficial owner(s) if signed in a representative capacity) has an interest in the Account. If the Account is beneficially owned by any person who is a Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Section 16 reporting person to a U.S. public company, you represent that no funds or assets belonging to such U.S. public company or any affiliate of such U.S. public company, will be invested through the Account.

11. ORDERS. Vision may refuse to accept any of your instructions and may process your instructions in any manner it believes commercially reasonable. You acknowledge Vision has absolute discretion in routing trade orders as long as it makes a reasonable and good faith effort to obtain best execution. For orders executed electronically via the Internet, online order entry systems or by facsimile (collectively, "Electronic Orders"), Vision's liability is limited to direct damages caused solely by its gross negligence or willful misconduct; provided, however that Vision is not responsible for loss or damages (including without limitation, loss of profits or use, and direct, indirect, incidental, punitive, special or consequential damages), arising from (a) any failure or malfunction of an Electronic Order entry system or inability to enter or cancel Electronic Orders, or (b) any fault in delivery, delay, interruption, inaccuracy or termination affecting all or part of any Electronic Order system or any supporting facility, regardless of whether a claim arises in contract, tort or otherwise. Unless otherwise specified, your instructions are not valid beyond the trading session entered.

12. PAYMENT FOR ORDER FLOW. Vision may, from time to time, receive payment for order flow. Order flow payment is compensation received as an incentive to direct transactions to certain market makers or specialists. This compensation is received in a number of ways, including direct cash payment. In certain instances, reduced transaction fees may be provided by such market makers or specialists.

13. LIMITS ON MUTUAL FUND TRADES. Because excessive trading in mutual fund shares can be detrimental to a fund and its shareholders, Vision may block account owners or accounts that engage in excessive trading from making further transactions in fund shares. A block on trading fund shares may be temporary or permanent, and may apply only to certain mutual funds or all mutual funds. The decision to impose a block may originate with a mutual fund company or may be made by Vision at the brokerage account level, if Vision believes such a block is warranted. To see what a given fund company's definition of "excessive trading" is, please check the fund's prospectus.

14. CREDIT AND REFERENCE CHECK. You authorize Vision, from time to time, to contact any financial institution, credit agency and other references to verify your information, creditworthiness and background, including financial information. Where Vision refuses to open an account for you, denies you credit or takes other adverse action based on your credit report, you may request in writing from Vision the name, address and telephone number of the credit agency which provided the information.

15. INTEREST. Except as otherwise set forth in this agreement, interest chargeable on amounts you owe Vision shall be the lesser of the highest rate permitted by law or two percent (2%) above the U.S. Prime rate as shown in the "Wall Street Journal" on the date Customer Debt becomes due and payable.

16. USE OF CUSTOMER FREE-CREDIT BALANCES. All free-credit balance funds (i.e., cash balances in your Account) are payable to you upon demand (subject to any open commitments in your Account) and, although properly accounted for on Vision's books and records, are not segregated and may be used in the operation of Vision's business, pursuant to SEC Rule 15c3-2. In the event you do not wish to have a free-credit balance in your Account, you may request Vision to sweep such cash to a money market fund by contacting your Registered Representative or Vision's Customer Service team (1-877-836-3949 or clientservices@visionfinancialmarkets.com).

17. NO WAIVER OR AMENDMENT; ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION. No provision of this agreement may be waived or amended unless the waiver or amendment is in writing and signed by an authorized officer of Vision. No remedy, waiver or amendment of Vision's rights or privileges shall be implied from any course of dealing between you and Vision, or the failure of Vision to exercise any of its rights hereunder or insist on strict compliance with any obligation hereunder. Vision may modify or amend this agreement upon 30 days prior written notice to you, and your acceptance of such amendment or modification will be deemed effective by your continued use of the services of the Account. You understand that there may be additional documentation required by Governing Regulations or Vision's policies and procedures. You agree to promptly comply with any such requests for documents.

18. BINDING EFFECT. This agreement shall be continuous and shall govern, individually and collectively, all of your Accounts opened or re-opened with Vision or to the extent indicated herein, its affiliates, successors and assigns. This agreement shall inure to the benefit of Vision and its successors, assigns and affiliates, and shall be binding upon you and your estate, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns. You ratify all transactions with Vision affected prior to the date of this agreement, and agree that your rights and obligations in respect thereto shall be governed by the terms of this agreement, which supersedes all other agreements between Vision and you.

19. TERMINATION. This agreement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party. Your Account shall be deemed closed and this agreement deemed terminated if the Account contains no Securities and other property for a period of 90 days. Termination shall not affect any transaction entered into and shall not relieve you of any obligation or liability incurred under this agreement prior to termination.

20. RECORDING. Subject to Governing Regulations, you agree that Vision, in its sole discretion, may record any telephone conversation between Vision and yourself or your agent. You hereby waive any right to object to the admissibility into evidence of such recordings in any legal proceeding between you or your agent and Vision. You agree that Vision may erase such recordings in accordance with its customary document retention policies. The rights conferred upon Vision in this paragraph extend to any third-party fiduciary with discretion over your Account.

21. PROSPECTIVE CONSENT TO ASSIGNMENT OR TRANSFER OF ACCOUNT(S). Vision may assign or transfer your Account to any of its successors or assigns without prior notice to you. You hereby consent to the assignment or transfer of your Account at any time hereafter from Vision to another broker, provided you receive a written notice of the assignment or transfer and have a reasonable opportunity to object. You may not transfer or assign your Account without the express written consent of Vision. Any assignment of your rights and obligations hereunder or interest in any property held by or through Vision without obtaining the prior written consent of Vision shall be null and void.

22. DAMAGES. THE PARTIES AGREE NOT TO SUE EACH OTHER FOR PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT OR SPECIAL DAMAGES IN A COURT OF LAW OR BEFORE ANY ARBITRATION PANEL EVEN IF APPLICABLE LAW OR THE ARBITRATION FORUM RULES ALLOW THE AWARD OF SUCH DAMAGES.

23. ACCEPTANCE. This agreement shall not be deemed to be accepted by Vision or become a binding contract between you and Vision until it is executed by an authorized officer of Vision.

24. CORRESPONDENTS AND THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. If this Account is introduced by a Correspondent broker/dealer which clears its business through Vision, Vision's liability is strictly limited to matters related to the execution and recordkeeping of trades and Vision will not be responsible for the conduct, representations or recommendations of the Correspondent or its employees or agents. If Vision is carrying the Account for you as a clearing broker by arrangement with a Correspondent through whom your Account has been introduced to Vision, then until receipt from you of written notice to the contrary, Vision may accept from such Correspondent, without inquiry or investigation by Vision, (a) orders for the purchase or sale in the Account of Securities and other property on margin or otherwise, and (b) any other instructions concerning the Account. Vision shall not be responsible or liable for any acts or omissions of such Correspondent or its employees or agents. All rights of Vision under this agreement shall also be extended to any Correspondent that introduced this Account to Vision and to any securities broker/dealer with which Vision interacts in connection with your Account, each of which is expressly made a third party beneficiary of this agreement.

25. FORCE MAJEURE. Vision shall not be liable for any loss or delay caused or have any obligation to provide services to you or your Account, when and to the extent Vision is prevented from doing so, directly or indirectly, by war, natural disasters, government acts or restrictions, exchange or market rulings, suspension of trading, electronic or telephone failures, labor disputes, civil commotions, enemy actions, acts of terrorism or other conditions beyond the reasonable control of Vision.

26. ARBITRATION.

Arbitration Disclosures:

This agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement the parties agree as follows:

(a) All parties to this agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.

(b) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is limited.

(c) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.

(d) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award.

(e) The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.

(f) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.

(g) The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this agreement.

Arbitration and Dispute Resolutions:

The parties waive their rights to seek remedies in court, including the right to a trial by jury. You agree that all controversies or disputes, either arising in the future or in existence now, between you and Vision (including any of our officers, directors, members, employees, agents, parent, subsidiaries or affiliates) shall be resolved by arbitration. Such controversies or disputes, include, but are not limited to, those involving any transaction in any of your Accounts with Vision, or the construction, performance or breach of any agreement between us, whether entered into or occurring prior, on or subsequent to the date hereof.

Any arbitration claim made shall be submitted to the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. or other self-regulatory organization ("SRO") subject to the jurisdiction of the Securities and Exchange Commission of which Vision is a member. Such arbitrations shall be conducted pursuant to the arbitration rules of the applicable SRO. You may elect whether arbitration shall be by an exchange or SRO of which Vision is a member. If you fail to make such election by registered letter or overnight delivery by reputable courier addressed to Vision at the office where you maintain your Account before the expiration of five days after receipt of a written request from Vision to make such election, then Vision may make such election.

Judgment upon the award of arbitrators may be entered in any state or federal court having jurisdiction.

Nothing in this agreement shall be deemed to limit or waive the application of any relevant state or federal statute of limitation, repose, or other time bar.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (i) the class certification is denied; or (ii) the class is decertified; or (iii) you are excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this agreement except to the extent stated herein.

27. SURVIVAL. Sections 5, 6, 8, 10, 15, 19, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31 shall survive the termination of this agreement.

28. APPLICABLE LAW AND SEVERABILITY. This agreement and its enforcement shall be governed by the laws of the State New York without reference to its conflict-of-laws principles. If any provisions hereof are invalid, illegal, void or enforceable by reason of any law, rule, administrative order or judicial decision, all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

29. FORUM SELECTION, CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. You agree that all disputes and controversies between Vision, Correspondent who introduced you to Vision (if applicable) and its employees or agents, on the one hand, and you, on the other hand, arising under or related to this agreement, any related agreement, or your Account shall be litigated (including arbitration) only in a forum located in New York, New York, whether in a court of law or equity, or before an arbitration forum. Accordingly, you consent and submit to the personal jurisdiction of any state or federal court located within New York, New York. You agree to accept personal service of process in any such legal proceeding by registered or certified mail addressed to you at the address provided on the Customer Account Information Form (Form 1) or to such other address you subsequently provide to Vision in writing. You hereby irrevocably waive any defense, claim or right to transfer or change the venue of any such action or proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Vision may initiate any action to collect Customer Debts or any amounts due Vision in any state or jurisdiction where there is personal jurisdiction over you or where you may have property located. You waive trial of any matter by jury and consent to trial before a judge or other trier of fact.

30. INDEMNIFICATION AND HOLD HARMLESS; PAYMENT OF VISION LITIGATION EXPENSES. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Vision and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, managers, members, employees and agents (collectively, the "Vision Parties") and the Correspondent who introduced you to Vision (if applicable), from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages (including without limitation, incidental, consequential, punitive, special, indirect and special damages), claims (whether in contract or tort), costs and expenses, including without limitation, accountants' and attorneys' fees (both in-house and outside attorneys' fees) incurred by any of the Vision Parties and such Correspondent arising out of or relating to this agreement, any related agreement or your Account, except to the extent caused directly by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Vision Party seeking indemnification. You also agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Vision Parties and such Correspondent from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses, including without limitation, accountants' and attorneys' fees (both in-house and outside attorneys' fees), incurred by any of the Vision Parties and/or such correspondent in enforcing any of the provisions of this agreement or any related agreement. If you initiate a legal action or proceeding against any of the Vision Parties and/or such Correspondent, and you do not prevail (i.e., recover more than Vision's highest offer to settle), you shall indemnify such Vision Parties and such Correspondent for all costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, in-house and outside attorneys' fees) incurred by such Vision Parties and such Correspondent to defend themselves.

31. IRA CUSTODIAN. STRATA Trust Company, the custodian on your Account, is separate and independent from Vision. Vision shall have no liability for the performance, conduct, actions or inaction of STRATA Trust Company, its officers, directors, employees or agents. In addition, Vision shall have no duty to supervise STRATA Trust Company, and Vision is not responsible for ensuring or monitoring STRATA Trust Company's compliance with Governing Regulations. You hereby waive any claim against all Vision Parties relating to the performance, conduct, actions or inaction of STRATA Trust Company, its officers, directors, employees or agents.

32. CUSTOMER'S RESPONSIBILITY REGARDING CERTAIN SECURITIES. Certain securities may grant the holder valuable rights that may expire unless the holder takes action. These securities include, but are not limited to, warrants, stock purchase rights, convertible securities, bonds and securities subject to a tender or exchange offer. You are responsible for knowing the rights and terms of all securities in your Account. Vision is not obligated to notify you of any upcoming expiration or redemption dates, or to take any other action on your behalf, without specific instructions from you, except as required by law and applicable rules of regulatory authorities.

You are also responsible for knowing about reorganizations related to securities which you hold, including but not limited to, stock splits and reverse stock splits. Vision is not obligated to notify you of any such reorganization. If, due to a reorganization, you sell more shares of a security than you own, or if you become uncovered on an option position, or if you become otherwise exposed to risk requiring Vision to take market action in your Account, then Vision will not be responsible for any losses you may incur, and you will be responsible for any cost incurred by Vision. Selling securities not deliverable by the settlement date or securities that Vision cannot borrow in the event of a short sale is not permissible and may result in your Account being restricted, liquidated and/or bought in.

Vision will not be responsible for pending adjustments to your Account, including but not limited to dividends, interest, distributions, redemptions and reorganizations until such amounts are actually processed in the settlement system and posted to your Account. Until such time, you will have no right or access to such amounts.

33. TRUSTED CONTACT PERSON AND TEMPORARY HOLDS ON YOUR ACCOUNT. A Trusted Contact Person ("TCP") is someone that you tell us we can contact if we suspect you may be subject to financial exploitation or if we have questions about your mental or physical well-being. For example, many people in their advancing years may demonstrate declining cognitive ability. The TCP may be able to help you and Vision in such circumstances. Designating one or more TCPs is solely your decision and is optional.

By electing a TCP, you understand that you have authorized Vision to contact the TCP at our discretion and to disclose any information about your account to help us address the situations noted above. This includes disclosing information about your account to address possible financial exploitation, confirming the specifics of your current contact information, your mental and physical health status, or the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee, or holder of a power of attorney on your account(s); or as otherwise permitted by industry regulations or state law.

If you have a financial advisor on your account, you understand that you are authorizing both Vision and your advisor to contact the TCP and we may share TCP information with each other and may coordinate on any conversations with a TCP and on any follow-up actions. You agree that Vision will not be responsible for, and cannot monitor, your advisor's use of the TCP information. You may change, add or remove your TCP at any time by contacting Vision by phone or in writing. A TCP is a source of information for Vision and is not a power of attorney. A TCP is not authorized to make investment decisions or withdraw funds from your account.

You authorize us to place a temporary hold on disbursements of funds or securities from your account if Vision reasonably believes financial exploitation has been attempted or has occurred in your account or in other circumstances we believe are necessary for your protection.

You also acknowledge that we may report any reasonable belief of financial exploitation, or in other circumstances we believe are necessary for your protection, to the applicable state securities administrator, to a state adult protective services agency, or to law enforcement agencies.

Providing Vision with a TCP does not ensure that financial exploitation will not be attempted or occur. You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Vision, its affiliates and their directors, officers, employees, and agents from and against all claims, actions, costs, and liabilities, including attorney's fees, arising out of or relating to: Vision contacting your TCP; Vision putting a temporary hold on disbursements of funds and/or securities from your account; and Vision not contacting your TCP or placing temporary holds on disbursements of funds and/or securities from your account.

By signing below, you certify that you received, read, understand and agree to all terms and provisions shown in the Agreement below, including the terms of the attached IRA Custodial Account Agreement (the "Custodial Account Agreement"), Disclosure Statement, IRA Financial Disclosure, and IRA Fee Schedule. In directing this action, you make the following representations, certifications and agreements:

1. Appointment of Custodian, Receipt of Custodial Account Agreement and Right to Revoke: I appoint STRATA as custodian of my Account. I acknowledge that I have received and read the Custodial Account Agreement, Disclosure Statement, IRA Financial Disclosure, and IRA Fee Schedule on the date shown below, and I agree to be bound by the terms and conditions contained in these documents. I understand that within seven (7) days from the date that I open my Account, I may revoke this application and close my Account without a penalty by mailing or delivering a written notice to STRATA.
2. Eligibility to Establish IRA: I represent and certify that I meet the requirements set forth in Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and any regulation promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service and/or Department of Treasury to establish an individual retirement account ("IRA") and represent and certify that I am eligible to establish an IRA. Furthermore, I agree that it is not the responsibility of STRATA to advise me as to the legality, validity or the tax implications of any contribution or transaction in my Account.
3. Sole Responsibility for Investments: I understand and agree that my Account is self-directed, which means that I am solely responsible for the management of the assets placed within my Account, including the selection, monitoring, and retention of all investments held within my Account. I understand and agree that STRATA (i) is in no way responsible for providing investment advice or recommendations, as to my Account, (ii) is not a "fiduciary" for my Account as such term is defined in the Code, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), by the Texas Department of Banking or under any other applicable federal, state or local laws. Furthermore, STRATA has no responsibility to question any investment direction given by me or my Designated Representative, if I have appointed one, regardless of the nature of the investment. I understand that STRATA is in no way responsible for the performance of any investment(s) held within my Account.
4. No Due Diligence Review Conducted by Custodian: I understand and agree that STRATA does not conduct any due diligence review of any investment, nor will STRATA make any investigation with regard to any investment, any issuer or sponsor of any investment, or any officer, director, or other person or entity involved or affiliated with any investment. I understand and agree that STRATA will not review or evaluate the prudence, viability, suitability, legality, or merits of any investment held in my Account. I understand that STRATA permits my Account to invest in a wide variety of investments based on administrative factors only. I acknowledge that STRATA does not sponsor or endorse any investment product other than the FDIC-insured NOW account where any uninvested funds are held.
5. Investments Not Guaranteed or Insured and May Lose Value: I understand and agree that investments held within my Account are not guaranteed by STRATA and that my investments are subject to investment risk, including the possible loss of the principal invested, and that my investments may lose value. I understand and agree that, except to the extent of the cash which is invested in the STRATA Trust Company Custodial Account (which are held at Horizon Bank and/or other Federally insured banks, and are FDIC insured), or directed into other FDIC insured bank products, the investments within my Account are not FDIC-insured, nor are any investments guaranteed by STRATA or Horizon Bank, and that such investments may lose value.
6. IRA Fees and Payment Policy: I acknowledge that I have received, reviewed, and approved the IRA Fee Schedule included with this IRA Application as well as Article XIV of the Custodial Account Agreement, and I agree and consent to timely pay all fees provided therein within 30 days of receiving notice of such fee. Certain custodial fees may be paid for a limited time under a special fee arrangement with an investment issuer or related service company if an Account purchases a qualifying investment. If at any time the investment issuer or related service company elects to discontinue the fee arrangement, I understand that I will become responsible for payment of all fees associated with my Account.
7. Indemnification and Hold Harmless: I agree to indemnify STRATA and their respective principals, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, members, employees, consultants, affiliates and agents, including any legal representatives or controlling persons of any such person (each, an "Indemnified Party"), and to hold each harmless from and against any losses, claims, settlement costs, injury, breach of laws, damages, liabilities, charges, taxes, penalties, or other expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, due to or arising out of (i) a breach of any representation, warranty, acknowledgement, certification or agreement contained in this Agreement or in any other document in connection with my establishment and management of my Account, (ii) the execution by STRATA of any direction provided by me with respect to my Account, (iii) any action or inaction by an Indemnified Party with respect to my Account that, although not pursuant to my specific direction, is otherwise contemplated under the terms of this Agreement or the Custodial Account Agreement (iv) any investment whatsoever made with respect to my Account, and (v) any tax consequences relating to my Account, including, without limitation, the tax and withholding requirements on any distributions from my Account.
8. Dispute Resolution: I agree to meet and confer in good faith with STRATA to resolve any problems or disputes that may arise under this Agreement, the Custodial Account Agreement, or any other dispute related to my Account with STRATA. Otherwise, I acknowledge and consent to the dispute resolution provisions outlined in Article 17.5 of the STRATA IRA Custodial Account Agreement provided to you by Vision. Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Form 5305-SEP (Model SEP) is used by an employer to make an agreement to provide benefits to all eligible employees under a simplified employee pension (SEP) described in section 408(k).

Do not file Form 5305-SEP with the IRS. Instead, keep it with your records.

For more information on SEPs and IRAs, see Pub. 560, Retirement Plans for Small Business (SEP, SIMPLE, and Qualified Plans), and Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Instructions to the Employer

Simplified employee pension. A SEP is a written arrangement (a plan) that provides you with an easy way to make contributions toward your employees' retirement income. Under a SEP, you can contribute to an employee's traditional individual retirement account or annuity (traditional IRA). You make contributions directly to an IRA set up by or for each employee with a bank, insurance company, or other qualified financial institution. When using Form 5305-SEP to establish a SEP, the IRA must be a Model traditional IRA established on an IRS form or a master or prototype traditional IRA for which the IRS has issued a favorable opinion letter. You may not make SEP contributions to a Roth IRA or a SIMPLE IRA. Making the agreement on Form 5305-SEP does not establish an employer IRA described in section 408(c).

When not to use Form 5305-SEP. Do not use this form if you:

1. Currently maintain any other qualified retirement plan. This does not prevent you from maintaining another SEP.

2. Have any eligible employees for whom IRAs have not been established.

3. Use the services of leased employees (described in section 414(n)).

4. Are a member of an affiliated service group (described in section 414(m)), a controlled group of corporations (described in section 414(b)), or trades or businesses under common control (described in sections 414(c) and 414(o)), unless all eligible employees of all the members of such groups, trades, or businesses participate in the SEP.

5. Will not pay the cost of the SEP contributions. Do not use Form 5305-SEP for a SEP that provides for elective employee contributions even if the contributions are made under a salary reduction agreement. Use Form 5305A-SEP, or a nonmodel SEP.

Note. SEPs permitting elective deferrals cannot be established after 1996.

Eligible employees. All eligible employees must be allowed to participate in the SEP. An eligible employee is any employee who: (1) is at least 21 years old, and (2) has performed "service" for you in at least 3 of the immediately preceding 5 years. You can establish less restrictive eligibility requirements, but not more restrictive ones.

Service is any work performed for you for any period of time, however short. If you are a member of an affiliated service group, a controlled group of corporations, or trades or businesses under common control, service includes any work performed for any period of time for any other member of such group, trades, or businesses.

Excludable employees. The following employees do not have to be covered by the

SEP: (1) employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement whose retirement benefits were bargained for in good faith by you and their union, (2) nonresident alien employees who did not earn U.S. source income from you, and (3) employees who received less than $450* in compensation during the year.

Contribution limits. You may make an annual contribution of up to 25% of the employee's compensation or $41,000*, whichever is less. Compensation, for this purpose, does not include employer contributions to the SEP or the employee's compensation in excess of $205,000*. If you also maintain a salary reduction SEP, contributions to the two SEPs together may not exceed the smaller of $41,000* or 25% of compensation for any employee.

You are not required to make contributions every year, but when you do, you must contribute to the SEP-IRAs of all eligible employees who actually performed services during the year of the contribution. This includes eligible employees who die or quit working before the contribution is made.

Contributions cannot discriminate in favor of highly compensated employees. Also, you may not integrate your SEP contributions with, or offset them by, contributions made under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA).

If this SEP is intended to meet the top-heavy minimum contribution rules of section 416, but it does not cover all your employees who participate in your salary reduction SEP, then you must make minimum contributions to IRAs established on behalf of those employees.

Deducting contributions. You may deduct contributions to a SEP subject to the limits of section 404(h). This SEP is maintained on a calendar year basis and contributions to the

* For 2005 and later years, this amount is subject to annual cost-of-living adjustments. The IRS announces the increase, if any, in a news release, in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, and on the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

SEP are deductible for your tax year with or within which the calendar year ends. Contributions made for a particular tax year must be made by the due date of your income tax return (including extensions) for that tax year.

Completing the agreement. This agreement is considered adopted when:

- IRAs have been established for all your eligible employees;
- You have completed all blanks on the agreement form without modification; and
- You have given all your eligible employees the following information:

1. A copy of Form 5305-SEP.
2. A statement that traditional IRAs other than the traditional IRAs into which employer SEP contributions will be made may provide different rates of return and different terms concerning, among other things, transfers and withdrawals of funds from the IRAs.
3. A statement that, in addition to the information provided to an employee at the time the employee becomes eligible to participate, the administrator of the SEP must furnish each participant within 30 days of the effective date of any amendment to the SEP, a copy of the amendment and a written explanation of its effects.
4. A statement that the administrator will give written notification to each participant of any employer contributions made under the SEP to that participant's IRA by the later of January 31 of the year following the year for which a contribution is made or 30 days after the contribution is made.

Employers who have established a SEP using Form 5305-SEP and have furnished each eligible employee with a copy of the completed Form 5305-SEP and provided the other documents and disclosures described in Instructions to the Employer and Information for the Employee, are not required to file the annual information returns, Forms 5500 or 5500-EZ for the SEP. However, under Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), this relief from the annual reporting requirements may not be available to an employer who selects, recommends, or influences its employees to choose IRAs into which contributions will be made under the SEP, if those IRAs are subject to provisions that impose any limits on a participant's ability to withdraw funds (other than restrictions imposed by the Code that apply to all IRAs). For additional information on Title I requirements, see the Department of Labor regulation at 29 CFR 2520.104-48.

Information for the Employee

The information below explains what a SEP is, how contributions are made, and how to treat your employer's contributions for tax purposes. For more information, see Pub. 590.

Simplified employee pension. A SEP is a written arrangement (a plan) that allows an employer to make contributions toward your retirement. Contributions are made to a traditional individual retirement account/annuity (traditional IRA). Contributions must be made to either a Model traditional IRA executed on an IRS form or a master or prototype traditional IRA for which the IRS has issued a favorable opinion letter.

An employer is not required to make SEP contributions. If a contribution is made, however, it must be allocated to all eligible employees according to the SEP agreement. The Model SEP (Form 5305-SEP) specifies that the contribution for each eligible employee will be the same percentage of compensation (excluding compensation greater than $205,000*) for all employees.

Your employer will provide you with a copy of the agreement containing participation rules and a description of how employer contributions may be made to your IRA. Your employer must also provide you with a copy of the completed Form 5305-SEP and a yearly statement showing any contributions to your IRA.

All amounts contributed to your IRA by your employer belong to you even after you stop working for that employer.

Contribution limits. Your employer will determine the amount to be contributed to your IRA each year. However, the amount for any year is limited to the smaller of $41,000* or 25% of your compensation for that year. Compensation does not include any amount that is contributed by your employer to your IRA under the SEP. Your employer is not required to make contributions every year or to maintain a particular level of contributions.

Tax treatment of contributions. Employer contributions to your SEP-IRA are excluded from your income unless there are contributions in excess of the applicable limit. Employer contributions within these limits will not be included on your Form W-2.

Employee contributions. You may make regular IRA contributions to an IRA. However, the amount you can deduct may be reduced or eliminated because, as a participant in a SEP, you are covered by an employer retirement plan.

SEP participation. If your employer does not require you to participate in a SEP as a condition of employment, and you elect not to participate, all other employees of your employer may be prohibited from participating. If one or more eligible employees do not participate and the employer tries to establish a SEP for the remaining employees, it could cause adverse tax consequences for the participating employees.

An employer may not adopt this IRS Model SEP if the employer maintains another qualified retirement plan. This does not prevent your employer from adopting this IRS Model SEP and also maintaining an IRS Model Salary Reduction SEP or other SEP. However, if you work for several employers, you may be covered by a SEP of one employer and a different SEP or pension or profit-sharing plan of another employer.

SEP-IRA amounts—rollover or transfer to another IRA. You can withdraw or receive funds from your SEP-IRA if, within 60 days of receipt, you place those funds in the same or another IRA. This is called a "rollover" and can be done without penalty only once in any 1-year period. However, there are no restrictions on the number of times you may make "transfers" if you arrange to have these funds transferred between the trustees or the custodians so that you never have possession of the funds.

Withdrawals. You may withdraw your employer's contribution at any time, but any amount withdrawn is includible in your income unless rolled over. Also, if withdrawals occur before you reach age 59½, you may be subject to a tax on early withdrawal.

Excess SEP contributions. Contributions exceeding the yearly limitations may be withdrawn without penalty by the due date (plus extensions) for filing your tax return (normally April 15), but are includible in your gross income. Excess contributions left in your SEP-IRA after that time may have adverse tax consequences. Withdrawals of those contributions may be taxed as premature withdrawals.

Financial institution requirements. The financial institution where your IRA is maintained must provide you with a disclosure statement that contains the following information in plain, nontechnical language:

1. The law that relates to your IRA.
2. The tax consequences of various options concerning your IRA.
3. Participation eligibility rules, and rules on the deductibility of retirement savings.
4. Situations and procedures for revoking your IRA, including the name, address, and telephone number of the person designated to receive notice of revocation. This information must be clearly displayed at the beginning of the disclosure statement.
5. A discussion of the penalties that may be assessed because of prohibited activities concerning your IRA.
6. Financial disclosure that provides the following information:
 - a. Projects value growth rates of your IRA under various contribution and retirement schedules, or describes the method of determining annual earnings and charges that may be assessed.
 - b. Describes whether, and for when, the growth projections are guaranteed, or a statement of the earnings rate and the terms on which the projections are based.
 - c. States the sales commission for each year expressed as a percentage of $1,000.

In addition, the financial institution must provide you with a financial statement each year. You may want to keep these statements to evaluate your IRA's investment performance.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The time needed to complete this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

Recordkeeping	1 hr., 40 min.
Learning about the law or the form	1 hr., 35 min.
Preparing the form	1 hr., 41 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Internal Revenue Service, Tax Products Coordinating Committee, SE:W:CAR:MP:T:T:SP, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20224. Do not send this form to this address. Instead, keep it with your records.

Important Information on Penny Stocks

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) requires your broker to give this statement to you, and to obtain your signature to show that you have received it, before your first trade in a penny stock. This statement contains important information – and you should read it carefully before you sign it, and before you decide to purchase or sell a penny stock.

In addition to obtaining your signature, the SEC requires your broker to wait at least two business days after sending you this statement before executing your first trade to give you time to carefully consider your trade.

Penny stocks can be very risky.

Penny stocks are low-priced shares of small companies. Penny stocks may trade infrequently - which means that it may be difficult to sell penny stock shares once you have them. Because it may also be difficult to find quotations for penny stocks, they may be impossible to accurately price. Investors in penny stock should be prepared for the possibility that they may lose their whole investment.

While penny stocks generally trade over-the-counter, they may also trade on U.S. securities exchanges, facilities of U.S. exchanges, or foreign exchanges. You should learn about the market in which the penny stock trades to determine how much demand there is for this stock and how difficult it will be to sell. Be especially careful if your broker is offering to sell you newly issued penny stock that has no established trading market.

The securities you are considering have not been approved or disapproved by the SEC. Moreover, the SEC has not passed upon the fairness or the merits of this transaction nor upon the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained in any prospectus or any other information provided by an issuer or a broker or dealer.

Information you should get.

In addition to this statement, your broker is required to give you a statement of your financial situation and investment goals explaining why his or her firm has determined that penny stocks are a suitable investment for you. In addition, your broker is required to obtain your agreement to the proposed penny stock transaction.

Before you buy penny stock, federal law requires your salesperson to tell you the “offer” and the “bid” on the stock, and the “compensation” the salesperson and the firm receive for the trade. The firm also must send a confirmation of these prices to you after the trade. You will need this price information to determine what profit or loss, if any, you will have when you sell your stock.

The offer price is the wholesale price at which the dealer is willing to sell stock to other dealers. The bid price is the wholesale price at which the dealer is willing to buy the stock from other dealers. In its trade with you, the dealer may add a retail charge to these wholesale prices as compensation (called a "markup" or "markdown").

The difference between the bid and the offer price is the dealer's "spread." A spread that is large compared with the purchase price can make a resale of a stock very costly. To be profitable when you sell, the bid price of your stock must rise above the amount of this spread and the compensation charged by both your selling and purchasing dealers. Remember that if the dealer has no bid price, you may not be able to sell the stock after you buy it, and may lose your whole investment.

After you buy penny stock, your brokerage firm must send you a monthly account statement that gives an estimate of the value of each penny stock in your account, if there is enough information to make an estimate. If the firm has not bought or sold any penny stocks for your account for six months, it can provide these statements every three months.

Additional information about low-priced securities - including penny stocks – is available on the SEC's Web site at <http://www.sec.gov/investor/pubs/microcapstock.htm>. In addition, your broker will send you a copy of this information upon request. The SEC encourages you to learn all you can before making this investment.

Brokers' duties and customer's rights and remedies.

Remember that your salesperson is not an impartial advisor - he or she is being paid to sell you stock. Do not rely only on the salesperson, but seek outside advice before you buy any stock. You can get the disciplinary history of a salesperson or firm from NASD at 1-800-289-9999 or contact NASD via the Internet at www.nasd.com. You can also get additional information from your state securities official. The North American Securities Administrators Association, Inc. can give you contact information for your state. You can reach NASAA at (202) 737-0900 or via the Internet at www.nasaa.org

If you have problems with a salesperson, contact the firm's compliance officer. You can also contact the securities regulators listed above. Finally, if you are a victim of fraud, you may have rights and remedies under state and federal law. In addition to the regulators listed above, you also may contact the SEC with complaints at (800) SEC-0330 or via the Internet at help@sec.gov.

Please see sections 4 and 7 of our Form ADV Part 2A here: Form ADV Part 2A Brochure

Brokerage Services	Investment Advisory Services
Monitoring: Cambria can offer additional services to assist you in the development and execution of your investment strategy. Unless it is agreed upon otherwise, Cambria is not obligated to monitor your portfolio or investments on an ongoing basis. This differs from the monitoring involved with Cambria’s Investment Advisory Services. Cambria will deliver or will cause to be delivered account statements to you at least quarterly in paper or electronic format.	Monitoring: Cambria monitors Investment Advisory services account on an ongoing basis. Our monitoring involves reviewing manager performance and individual account performance. As each customer has different needs, we will establish regular review periods to discuss your strategy and investment goals. Investment Advisory services receive more frequent and ongoing monitoring than customers in a brokerage services relationship.
Investment Authority: You may select the investment, or we may recommend investments for your account, but the ultimate investment decision will be yours. This is a non-discretionary relationship. Cambria does not obtain or exercise discretion of brokerage services accounts.	Investment Authority: You can choose an account that allows Cambria to buy and sell investments in your account without asking you in advance (a “ discretionary account ”) or we may give you advice and you decide what investments to buy and sell (a non-discretionary account ”).
Limited Investment Offerings: Cambria offers a full-service approach for exchange listed and OTC securities as well as mutual fund offerings. Access to private placements or other offerings is limited to those products for which Cambria has a selling agreement.	Limited Investment Offerings: Our Investment Advice will cover a limited selection of third-party advisors and/or investments. Other firms could provide advice on a wider range of choices, some of which might have lower costs.

Account Minimums and Other Requirements: Cambria does not have a minimum account size or investment amount to establish/maintain a brokerage account/relationship.	Account Minimums and Other Requirements: Cambria’s minimum account size varies among the different advisory programs offered. The range of minimum account sizes is between $10,000 and $100,000. Smaller accounts may find their performance more negatively impacted by the advisory fees charged than larger accounts. Additionally, Cambria may terminate your account if it falls below a minimum size in which, in Cambria’s sole opinion, is too small to manage effectively. No other conditions exist that would prevent an account from becoming an Advisory account of Cambria.

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Should I choose a brokerage service? Should I choose both types of services? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

Brokerage Account Fees	Advisory Account Fees
Transaction-based fees. You will pay us a fee every time you buy or sell an investment. This fee, commonly referred to as a commission, is based on the specific transaction and not the value of your account. With stocks or exchange-traded funds this commission is usually recognized as a separate fee. With stocks or exchange-traded funds, this fee is usually a separate commission. With other investments, such as bonds, this fee might be part of the price you pay for the investment (called a “mark-up” or “mark down”). With mutual funds, this fee (typically called a “load”) reduces the value of your investment. Some investments (such as mutual funds and variable annuities) impose additional fees that will reduce the value of your investment over time. Also, with certain investments such as variable annuities, you may have to pay fees such as “surrender charges” to sell the investment.	Asset-Based Fees. You will pay an on-going fee at the beginning or end of each quarter or month based on the value of the cash and investments in your advisory account. The amount of the fee paid to Cambria and your financial professional generally does not vary based on the investments in your account. Asset-based fees are deducted from your account and result in a reduction of the value of the account in the amount of the fee. The asset-based fee for wrap fee programs typically include most transaction costs and custody services and as a result are typically higher than the asset-based fee for non-wrap programs. While transaction fees are typically included in the wrap program an investment bought or sold outside of the wrap fee program might result in additional transaction fee(s). For accounts that are a part of a non-wrap fee program you will pay a transaction fee when an investment is bought or sold for your account. In addition to a transaction fee you

Cambria's fees vary and are negotiable. The amount of fees you will pay are dependent upon the frequency of your transactions, type(s) of investments and the type of account.

Additional fees for brokerage services account(s) include custodian fees, account maintenance fees and account inactivity fees.

The more transactions in your account, the more fees we charge you. We therefore have an incentive to encourage you to engage in transactions." A transaction-based fee might be preferable for you if you do not plan to trade often or if you plan to buy and hold investments for longer periods of time.

will pay custody fees to a broker-dealer or bank that will hold your assets.

Some investments incur additional fees (mutual fund expense ratios) that reduce the value of your investment over time.

A direct relationship exists between the value of the assets in your account (including cash) and the amount you will pay Cambria for your services. The higher the value of your account the more you will pay us. Cambria, therefore, has an incentive to increase the assets in your account. Additionally, you will pay the quarterly or monthly fee even if no transactions take place in the account.

Cambria's fees vary and are negotiable. Please refer to sections 4-8 of our Investment Advisory Brochure Part 2A.

Asset-based fees can be more costly than a transaction-based fee if there are infrequent trades in your account. You might prefer an asset-based fee if you want continued monitoring and advice or want someone to make investment decisions on your behalf. Asset-based fees also provide the certainty of a regular fee compared to a fee charged per transaction.

The most common fees that might be applicable to brokerage and advisory accounts are account maintenance fees, mutual fund 12b-1 fees, minimum account balance fees and account service fees. Please discuss these fees with your representative when establishing a relationship with Cambria.

Conversation Starter –

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For additional information, Broker dealer customers can refer to our schedule of fees and costs (www.cambriacapital.com/fees). Investment Advisory clients can refer to our Brochure (<https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/brochure/133760>)

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations as my broker-dealer or when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we provide you with a recommendation as your broker-dealer or act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the recommendations we provide you.

Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

We have an affiliate relationship with Digital Offering, LLC who acts as the Broker-Dealer Manager of certain investments offered to our broker dealer customers. We could indirectly benefit from this relationship.

We work and share fees with third-party money managers who provide advisory service to our Investment Advisory customers. The fees shared with the third-party managers varies based on negotiations. We might have an incentive to select or refer a manager with a lower fee sharing agreement to act as the advisor on your account.

For additional information, please refer to our Brochure (Form ADV Part 2A Brochure) or our company Website (www.cambriacapital.com) under Products and Services, Our Solutions and Investment Banking.

How do financial professionals make money?

Brokerage Account Compensation	Advisory Account Compensation
The firm and its representatives are primarily compensated by commissions charged on the transactions in your account. Our representatives can receive higher levels of compensation based on the amount of assets they manage, the amount of commissions charged and the types of products sold. Some investment products involve compensation paid by the sponsor or issuer of the securities and might be higher than the commission for other investment products available to you. At times we might provide an incentive to representatives to increase their assets under management.	The firm and its representatives are primarily paid by the fees charged on your account. In a non-wrap program the representative might also be paid a transaction based commission on the investments bought and sold for your account. The fees charged to your account might also include a fee to a third-party manager. We might negotiate a lower fee for the third-party manger resulting in higher fees paid to us and your representative.

CAMBRIA CAPITAL LLC's Business Continuity Planning

Cambria Capital, LLC has developed a Business Continuity Plan on how we will respond to events that significantly disrupt our business. Since the timing and impact of disasters and disruptions is unpredictable, we will have to be flexible in responding to actual events as they occur. With that in mind, we are providing you with this information on our business continuity plan.

Contacting Us – If after a significant business disruption you cannot contact us as you usually do at 801-320-9606 or at 877-226-0477, you should contact the clearing firm for your account for instructions on how it may obtain prompt access to customer funds and securities, enter and process orders and any other trade-related items.

Apex Clearing, LLC, at 214-765-1001 or www.apexclearing.com
Axos Clearing, LLC, at 866-774-0218 or www.axosclearing.com
Folio Investments, Inc, at 888-485-3456 or www.folioinstitutional.com
Vison Financial Markets, LLC, at 877-836-3949 or www.vfmarkets.com

Our Business Continuity Plan – We plan to quickly recover and resume business operations after a significant business disruption and respond by safeguarding our employees and property, making a financial and operational assessment, protecting the firm's books and records, and allowing our customers to transact business. In short, our business continuity plan is designed to permit our firm to resume operations as quickly as possible, given the scope and severity of the significant business disruption.

Our business continuity plan addresses: data back up and recovery; all mission critical systems; financial and operational assessments; alternative communications with customers, employees, and regulators; alternate physical location of employees; critical supplier, contractor, bank and counter-party impact; regulatory reporting; and assuring our customers prompt access to their funds and securities if we are unable to continue our business.

Our clearing firms, Apex Clearing, LLC, Axos Clearing, LLC, Folio Investments, Inc and Vision Financial Markets, LLC, back up our important records in a geographically separate area. While every emergency situation poses unique problems based on external factors, such as time of day and the severity of the disruption, our clearing firm has advised us that its objective is to restore its own operations and be able to complete existing transactions and accept new transactions and payments within 4 to 12 hours. Your orders and requests for funds and securities could be delayed during this period.

Varying Disruptions – Significant business disruptions can vary in their scope, such as only our firm, a single building housing our firm, the business district where our firm is located, the city where we are located, or the whole region. Within each of these areas, the severity of the disruption can also vary from minimal to severe. In a disruption to only our firm or a building housing our firm, we will transfer our operations to a local site when needed and expect to recover and resume business within 4 to 12 hours. In a disruption affecting our business district, city, or region, we will transfer our operations to a site outside of the affected area, and recover and resume business within 4 to 12 hours. In either situation, we plan to continue in business, and transfer operations to our clearing firm if necessary, and notify you through our customer emergency hotline as to how to contact us. If the significant business disruption is so severe that it prevents us from remaining in business, we will assure our customer's prompt access to their funds and securities.

For more information – If you have questions about our business continuity planning, you can contact us at 877-226-0477.

Anti-Money Laundering Requirements

The USA Patriot Act

The USA Patriot Act, signed into law by President Bush on October 26, 2001, was formed in response to terrorist activities against the United States. In expanding the authority of American law enforcement for the stated purpose of fighting terrorism in the United States, the Act imposes new anti-money laundering requirements on brokerage firms and financial institutions. As of April 24, 2002, all brokerage firms are required to have comprehensive, compliant anti-money laundering programs. We make every effort to implement the USA Patriot Act. We would like to help you understand these efforts and to provide you with some information about money laundering and the implementation of the USA Patriot Act.

Money laundering

Money laundering is the practice of engaging in specific financial transactions in order to conceal the identity, source, and/or destination of money, often to make it appear that the funds come from legitimate activities. No longer exclusive to organized crime, money laundering occurs in connection with a wide variety of crimes, including drug trafficking, the sale of illegal arms, robbery, fraud, racketeering, and is a major concern in the battle against terrorists. Money laundering activities are a global dilemma, purported to reach up to $1 trillion a year. The use of the U.S. financial system by criminals would taint our financial markets.

How can we help to eliminate money laundering?

To comply with the USA Patriot Act, our anti-money laundering program must designate a special compliance officer, conduct independent audits, set up employee training, and establish policies and procedures to detect and report suspicious transactions. It may therefore be necessary to ask you to provide certain documentation or other information before we can open an account or effect any transactions on your behalf. We thank you for your patience and hope that you will support us in our efforts to deny terrorist groups access to America's financial system.
